ELECTIVES

Campers will be given the opportunity to participate in, and enjoy, two 45-minute classes in various art disciplines each afternoon. Because the number of spaces per discipline is capped, it is important to note that campers will be placed on a first-come, first-served basis as applications are received.

Campers are asked to prioritize the following electives (numbers 1-5) in provided boxes. Please fill in ALL five boxes. While it is our intention to provide each camper with their first and second choices, this may not be possible if the resulting requests exceed the number of spaces allowed per discipline. Applications with no elective selections will be placed where spaces are available.

DRUM CORPS. (max. 10 students)

For the students who are not playing drums as their major instrument at the camp, this elective allows students who play other instruments to experiment with, and get a basic exposure to the enjoyment of playing in a rhythm group. Snare, tenor and bass drum parts will be played. Some basic marching techniques may also be explored.

DRAMA (IMPROV.) (12-15 students)

Come learn the basics of improv. with performer and former Second City instructor, Jennine Profeta. You'll laugh! You won't cry! Campers will participate in hands-on, laugh-a-minute games and exercises that build confidence while focusing on fundamentals such as teamwork and the power of "Yes And". No experience necessary.

JAZZ COMBO (7-9 students)

Specifically for the more advanced players, this elective is comprised of rhythm and horn sections and teaches techniques for music improvisation and small ensemble playing in a jazz setting.

Join jazz specialist, Scott Marshall, and "let's lay down some grooves."

DANCE (max. 12 students)

With professional dancer, Caroline Bentley, this dance elective will focus on the urban style of Hip-Hop, while introducing different ways of moving along with components of composition and creation. This is a very important aspect of dance as it enriches creativity, imagination and encourages the freedom of dance in everyone's unique way.

HAND DRUMS (max. 8-12 students)

Several types of hand drums will be used to introduce campers to different world drumming styles and techniques through informative and enjoyable instruction by a professional drumming instructor. Instruments will be supplied by the camp.

This elective is open to all campers, regardless of their major instrument. No experience is necessary.

BEGINNING INSTRUMENTAL INSTRUCTION

This program is only open to students who are entering grade five, six or seven in September 2022 and have never played a band instrument. This program will be limited to the first 30 applicants.

Students in this program will be taught the basics of learning a band instrument starting with instrument assembly, proper playing positions and techniques, notes and rhythms reading and playing. As a group, these players will form a band and perform beginning level repertoire.

This group of students will join other campers in activities such as electives, sports and show choir.

The introduction and objective of this program is to compensate the students for such school programs missed due to the Covid pandemic, with the hope of exposing them to the wonderful experience of playing an instrument and giving them a kick-start to the school music programs in September.
